

Notice of Privacy Policy of The Elite Agency, Inc.

At the Elite Agency, Inc., we do not disclose, and do not wish to reserve the right to disclose, nonpublic personal information about customers or former customers to affiliates or nonaffiliated third parties, except that we may make disclosures of nonpublic personal information to nonaffiliated third parties as permitted by law, primarily in order to effect, administer, or enforce a transaction which you request or authorize in connection with servicing or processing your account. The following summarizes our policies with respect to the nonpublic personal information which we collect and the methods which we use to protect that information.

Information We May Collect

We may collect information that you provide to us on applications for our products, financing or through other similar forms and from telephone or in-person interviews.

- Information about your transactions with us, such as the products you purchase and your payment history.
- Information from nonaffiliated companies such as financing information from unrelated service providers, employers, and other third parties.
- Information provided to us from consumer reporting agencies, such as your credit history.

Our Policies and Practices to Protect The Confidentiality and Security of Your Information

- We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you.
- We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.
- We afford prospective and former customers the same protections as existing customers with respect to the use of personal information.
